

May 10 (Thu)

Step back in time on this “Amish Getaway” and enjoy a slow-paced day in this fast-paced world as we make our way to the Amish community of Jamesport, MO, the largest Old Order Amish Settlement west of the Mississippi! On this “Amish Getaway,” you will discover all of the treasures of the area as if time stood still centuries ago. The Amish live in modest homes on rural farms, and travel by means of horse drawn buggies. Their peaceful lifestyle revolves around a close-knit family, the discipline of their faith, and the utilization of the land, all of which can be seen as you travel the rolling hills and country side. Their religion forbids any reliance upon technology, so they do not use electricity. Fieldwork is done with the aid of horses and horse-drawn implements. As we explore the countryside with a local guide who grew up with and went to school with the Amish, we will learn what it was like sharing daily life among the largest Old Order Amish Settlement. Our journey also includes a guided tour through an Amish home and farm by an Amish family who will explain how and why they live as they do without the modern conveniences we take for granted every day. See their washing machine, refrigerator, power tools, lighting, and more! We’ll stop at Amish country stores where you’ll find Amish made furniture, spices and cooking supplies, bakery goods, quilts, jams, and numerous other goods. After the tour, we’ll enjoy a hearty boxed lunch.
